

DANNIELLE HILLE is a victim counselor for the State of New York and has a Bachelor's in Criminal Justice from the University at Albany School of Criminal Justice. Dannielle runs the not-for-profit A Block at a Time (ABAAT) which works to help heal and rebuild communities through advocacy, education, reform and access to basic needs and services. Since establishing ABAAT, Dannielle has been able to facilitate conversations between the community and the city on issues ranging from abandoned buildings to police misconduct. She has also served in leadership positions on several community committees and non-profit boards, many times increasing public access by upgrading the technology. Every August, Dannielle co-chairs the largest National Night Out celebration in the City of Albany with years seeing more than 500 attendees and nearly 100 vendors from law enforcement, health care, mental health, and community organizations. She also had an adorable cat named Cuddles.
