A Constituent's Guide to the Albany Common Council, Part 15: What is the Violence Prevention Task Force?

Each month, we'll discuss all things Common Council.

The City of Albany's government hosts over twenty primarily volunteer-operated boards and commissions who steer and advise on essential facets of city operations. The Violence Prevention Task Force is one of these vital bodies!

The creation of the Task Force was called for within the Equity Agenda (Chapter 183 of the Code of the City of Albany), which was adopted by the Common Council in October 2019. The Equity Agenda established the Violence Prevention Task Force's responsibility to recommend action items to be considered by city officials in preparation for the uptick in violence associated with summertime. Additionally, the Violence Prevention Task Force is involved in a community-oriented budgeting process which allocates annual funding to violence prevention initiatives in Wards most affected by violence.

The Violence Prevention Task Force is currently accepting applications for appointment from qualified individuals who are passionate about addressing violence in the City of Albany. Those with related professional, academic, and life experience that can commit to attending regular in-person meetings are encouraged to submit an application. If you are interested in applying, review the Call for Application for more information!

If you are simply interested in supporting the Task Force or keeping up with their activities feel free to view their previous agendas and minutes on Agenda Center or attend a meeting! Violence Prevention Task Force Meetings are welcome to the public—stop by a meeting in the Common Council Chambers (24 Eagle Street) or attend virtually by watching on Facebook or YouTube!
