 For Immediate Release ******

Albany, NY – The Community Police Review Board (CPRB) is now seeking proposals for legal representation.

The CPRB is seeking licensed attorneys or firms who are passionate about making a positive impact in the Albany community. The CPRB's mission is to improve communication and relationships between the Albany Police Department (APD) and community while working toward long-term, sustainable outcomes. The CPRB is responsible for regularly reviewing and investigating complaints of alleged misconduct committed by members of the APD.

If you are interested to learn more about the CPRB's legal needs the Request for Proposal can be located on the City of Albany website here or to Bidnet here.¹

Proposal's will be accepted until December 19, 2025.
