

Jeremiah Hair, a Schenectady native and graduate of UC Berkeley, has been a staff member of the Homeless and Travelers Aid Society for nearly 5 years. In that time, he has worked to secure housing, treatment, and supports for members of our community returning from incarceration, inpatient care, and homelessness. He is currently tasked with maintaining the Rapid Rehousing program for HATAS, which strives to provide a path from Albany's streets and shelters to stable housing.