

“My name is Brendan McCann. I am a Case Manager for the City of Albany’s Department of Youth and Workforce Services. I work on a grant called Compass Rose. The focus of the grant is to guide young adults ages 18-24 out of the justice system and to successfully enter the workforce and educational systems. I have been working for the City Of Albany for 1 year. I was born and raised in New York and studied at the University at Albany. I have been working in the Social Work field for the past 6 years. You may often see me on the call with a youth by my side. This is one of our participants in the Compass Rose Program who has a history with the justice system and a desire to be a part of this conversation. “
