

William Yager Bio

Albany has been William “Tragedy” Yager’s home since 1969 when he was born at Albany Medical Center. It’s where he grew up, and learned many lessons in life, some of which were hard. In 1999 I was found guilty of Conspiracy to Transport Marijuana, a Federal Class B Felony. He was sentenced to 48 months in Federal Prison and 36 months supervised release (Federal Probation). Since returning to society, every day, William Yager has striven to be a better person. He wants people to be able to see that a person can learn from past mistakes to succeed in business and to continuously give back to their local community. Currently he is the proud owner of a number of businesses in downtown Albany which include: Patsy’s Barber Shop, Patsy’s Barber Shop on the Concourse, Modern Body Art, Shocker Tattoo, Lucky Cat Laundromat, The Bull and Bee: Taproom & Meadery, and Fuze Box.
